Direct Speech

There are several rules that need to be followed when quoting direct speech (spoken words).

Explanation

Example

1 Speech Marks

Speech marks are used to indicate direct speech. They enclose the spoken words.

"What do you want to do this weekend?" asked Abby.

2 Exact Words

Only use speech marks when quoting the exact spoken words. Indirect speech does not need speech marks.

Abby asked us what we wanted to do this weekend.
g no speech marks needed

3 Capital Letters

Use a capital letter at the start of direct speech, unless the speech is a continuation of an existing sentence.

"Stay there!" he shouted.
"You can't leave now!"
"We are going to France," he said, "but not until March."

4 Punctuation (inside speech marks)

Place any punctuation that belongs to the direct speech inside the speech marks.

"When are we having lunch?" asked Toby.
"Get out!" shouted the teacher.

5 Punctuation (outside speech marks)

Place any punctuation that does not belong to the direct speech outside the speech marks.

Did Arnold really say, "I'll be back"?

6 Commas

Use a comma if the text continues after the direct speech. You also need to use a comma when introducing direct speech.

"That's an iconic movie quote," said Mike.
Beth replied, "Yes, I know."

7 New Paragraphs

Start a new paragraph every time there is a new speaker.

"Do you like apples?" asked Will. "I always wondered."
"Yes. Why do you ask?" replied Tomek.
